INSTRUCTOR BIO

MICHAEL GIESE

Michael Giese is a Property Manager with Tishman Speyer at 30 North LaSalle, where he is responsible for the financial and operational performance of this 1.1 million square foot commercial office building. He also serves as a member of Tishman Speyer's national Sustainability Committee.

In his previous position, he managed 161 North Clark, a 1.3 million square foot commercial office building. His building team received the BOMA Earth Award in 2008, winning at the local and regional levels. He also led the team through a LEED certification project, earning LEED Silver in 2010. Prior to that, he managed 101 North Wacker for Equity Office, where his team received the BOMA TOBY Award in 2004.

Mr. Giese earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy from Northern Illinois University and an MBA in Real Estate Finance from DePaul University. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and holds the Real Property Administrator (RPA) designation from BOMI. He serves on the Chicago Architecture Foundation's Sustainability Committee and is President of the Chicago Real Estate Network.
